Seniors

Though we the seniors of 1941 are looking back over the last six years with a tinge of sadness, we are at the same time looking forward to what the future years may hold for us. Our sojourn in Winslow High has given us many good things to remember and has furnished us with experiences which will help to guide us in the problems which we shall find facing us.

Winslow High has equipped us with certain principles which will guide us in our achievements whether they be in the paths of the most high or the most lowly. And although it is our ambition to go out into the world and serve it to the best of our ability, we shall always look back with fondness upon the golden days spent in good old Winslow High.

Juniors

School days have been called the "golden" time of life, and this has been true in the case of the Juniors. One more year and we shall have attained the last lap of our high school life. We have been so busy with worthwhile things, such as music, dramatics, school contests, and the friendship of students and teachers, that we have hardly realized that the time has passed so swiftly.

Soon we shall graduate, but the memories of our past associations and friendships will stay with us as something fine and lasting.

The present Sophomore class was started back in 1930. When we entered school there were only about twenty-five of us; but as the years went by, our class increased in size until the teachers were forced to divide the class into three groups.

The Sophomores, again united, into one class are very active. We won first place for the best float in the Bulldog Rumpus Parade both while we were in the eighth grade and Freshman class. Many inter-class sports have also been won by us.

The Sophomore class hopes to be the largest class to graduate from high school. We would also like to have a higher scholastic average than any other high school class.

Our sponsors are Miss Naysmith and Mr. Rabogliatti—we believe they have contributed much to our success.

JUNIOR HI ANNUAL QUEEN

VONDEL BAIRD

Junior High History 1940-41

To start things out, two Junior Hi classes took the second and third places in the Bulldog Rumpus Parade. They were 7A-1 and 7A-3.

On February 8th a Junior High Basketball Tournament was held in Holbrook. Our boys won three games against Showlow, Woodruff, and Holbrook. This is the first time in three years that Winslow has brought the cup home.

April 25th and 26th we presented some "one act plays." The plays given were as follows:

8A-1 "Getting Gracie Graduated."

8A-2 "The Devil Stone."

7A-1 "Nevertheless."

The 8A-3, 7A-2, and 7A-3 had not selected their plays at the time the annual went to press but each class is going to enter.

Each year the Junior High puts out an annual but as the Senior High is putting one out, the precedent will be broken this year.

Bulldog Barks

The Bulldog Barks is a weekly school paper published by the Journalism Class. There was a different editor for each issue the first semester; but Eileen Wiley was elected editor for the second semester. There were fourteen students enrolled the first semester, but only nine enrolled the second semester.

The Winslow High School Honor Society was first organized by Miss Verla Oare in 1935.

Its purposes are to promote leadership, scholarship, and service. Only the upper 25 per cent of the Senior Class and the upper 15 per cent of the Junior Class are eligible for membership.

Miss Oare is again the sponsor this year.

The Winslow High School Spanish Club, "Batallas con Palabras," is one of the oldest active organizations in school. It was organized by Miss Martha White.

To be eligible for membership in the club, a student must make one's or two's in Spanish I and not below a three in Spanish II.

The club meets twice a week to discuss any business which may come before it or to enjoy informal parties. Each year the club presents an assembly which is entirely in a Spanish theme.

Miss Dorothy MacMahon is the club sponsor this year.

Spanish Club

Pep Squad

The Pep Squad was organized in 1927. The main purpose for this organization is to promote interest in the student body in different athletic activities. Members are elected by popular vote and are subjected to an initiation unequalled by any other initiation in high school. For the "rats," as the new members are called, have to endure onions, eggs, and sore knees for an entire day.

Assemblies, dances, and rallies are sponsored by this group as well as various drills at football and basketball games.

For the last two years Miss Gertrude Cartlidge has been the sponsor.

Rifle Club

Although the Rifle Club is a comparatively new organization, it is perhaps one of the most active organizations in the school. The members use modern equipment, and are pretty good as "sharpshooters." The pictures were taken out at the Rifle Range and show how seriously the members really take their work.

The club, organized in May, 1939, is a member of the National Rifle Club, and the members and their sponsor, Mr. Olmsted, are very proud of the high rating it has in the national club.

Other members whose pictures are not above are Billy Brennan, Melvin Clark, Duane Mosley, Dick Wilson, and Byrl Wilson.

Debate

The above mentioned students went to the Debate Meet at Flagstaff this year, and the team of Virginia Howell and Dick Kliendienst walked away with the honors. They successfully met their rivals and won with few "casualties." This year the sponsor, Mr. Zimmerman, sent four teams up, and the other debate students went up as spectators. The teams were: Pat Murray and Genevieve Jenkins, Helen Carraway and Richard Shumway, Edward Yingling and Joan Kabelin, and the winning team.

The Art Club was organized in the spring of 1941 by Miss Martha Higinbotham, the Winslow High School Art Supervisor. It is composed of the students of the high school art classes, who go out every Saturday morning on sketching trips. The main aim of the club is to have an exhibit of the works of the artists of Winslow.

Golf

RICHARD THOMAS

This year, Winslow for the first time in several years had an active show of interest in golf. Those deserving particular mention are: R. Thomas, G. Ahrens, J. Upchurch, and R. Pierson.

The golf team every year has its tournament along with the two track meets; the Winslow Invitational and the Northern Arizona Track Meet at Flagstaff.

Also there are several interschool meets every year.

Invitational Track Meet

Taking the lion's share of the honors, the Winslow Bulldogs were victorious in the Winslow Invitational Meet for the third straight year. The Bulldogs annexed 84 points in the April 26 meet by collecting 12 first places. Prescott ran second with 37 tallies and Round Valley followed with 24. Flagstaff with 17 and St. Johns' 2 rounded out the competition.

Scott Freeman, lanky Bulldog junior, led the spree by setting new marks in the javelin throw and shot put. Freeman heaved the javelin, his specialty, 168' 5" to better his own meet record by 12 feet. Mitsugi Nomoto placed third in the spear throwing event for the Bulldogs. Freeman and Jim Upchurch both broke the standing shot put record with the former coming out on top with a 46' 5" toss. It bettered the old mark by 3 feet. Jack Martin, Round Valley weight-man, aided by a fine wind, threw the football 226' 8½" for another new record. Freeman and Upchurch were runner-ups, both bettering the existing record. Martin broke Upchurch's meet record to win the event. Upchurch turned in one of the outstanding feats of the day by sending the discus 137'. It easily broke his own meet record. Nomoto again collected a third place for the Bulldogs with his heave of the platter.

Bud Pierson captured first places in the high and low hurdles and placed second in the broad jump. He tied his old mark in the high barriers by easily winning the event in 16.2. Fred Bailey came in third in the high hurdles and Jimmy Freeman copped another third in the low hurdles. Robert Bartee took the high jump by leaping 5' 5" and then came back to win the broad jump with a 20' jump. The little sophomore was outstanding among the bigger athletes.

Captain Loren Macktima was unable to set new records in the mile and half-mile runs, as was expected, because of the strong winds, but still had the stamina to collect the two firsts. His times were 5:13.6 and 2:22.1 respectively. Bill Carr ran a thrilling race in the 220 but was nosed out by Stewart of Round Valley. Carr also placed fourth in the 100 which was won by Thompson of Prescott. The Bulldog relay team, composed of Carr, Upchurch, Macktima, and S. Freeman, walked off with the 880 relay race. Flagstaff edged out Prescott for second in a difficult race in the mud. Winslow's time was 1:54.7 which was very good considering the condition of the track.

The Bulldogs' tremendous total was the highest point score in years. Last year they won with 60½ points and this year ran up a huge 84 during the exciting afternoon's competition.

Tennis and Golf tournaments were held in the morning with Snowflake dominating the tennis and Flagstaff coming out on top in golf.

On May 2-3 the State meet was held at Tucson with the following boys making the trip: Captain Loren Macktima, 440, 880, and mile; Jim Upchurch, shot put and discus throw; Scott Freeman, 220, javelin throw and shot put; Robert Bartee, high jump and broad jump; Bud Pierson, high and low hurdles, broad jump; Jimmy Freeman, low hurdles and 100; Bill Carr, 100 and 220; Charley Werner, pole vault.

The Conference meet was held at Flagstaff May 10. The results of these last two meets were determined too late to appear in this annual.

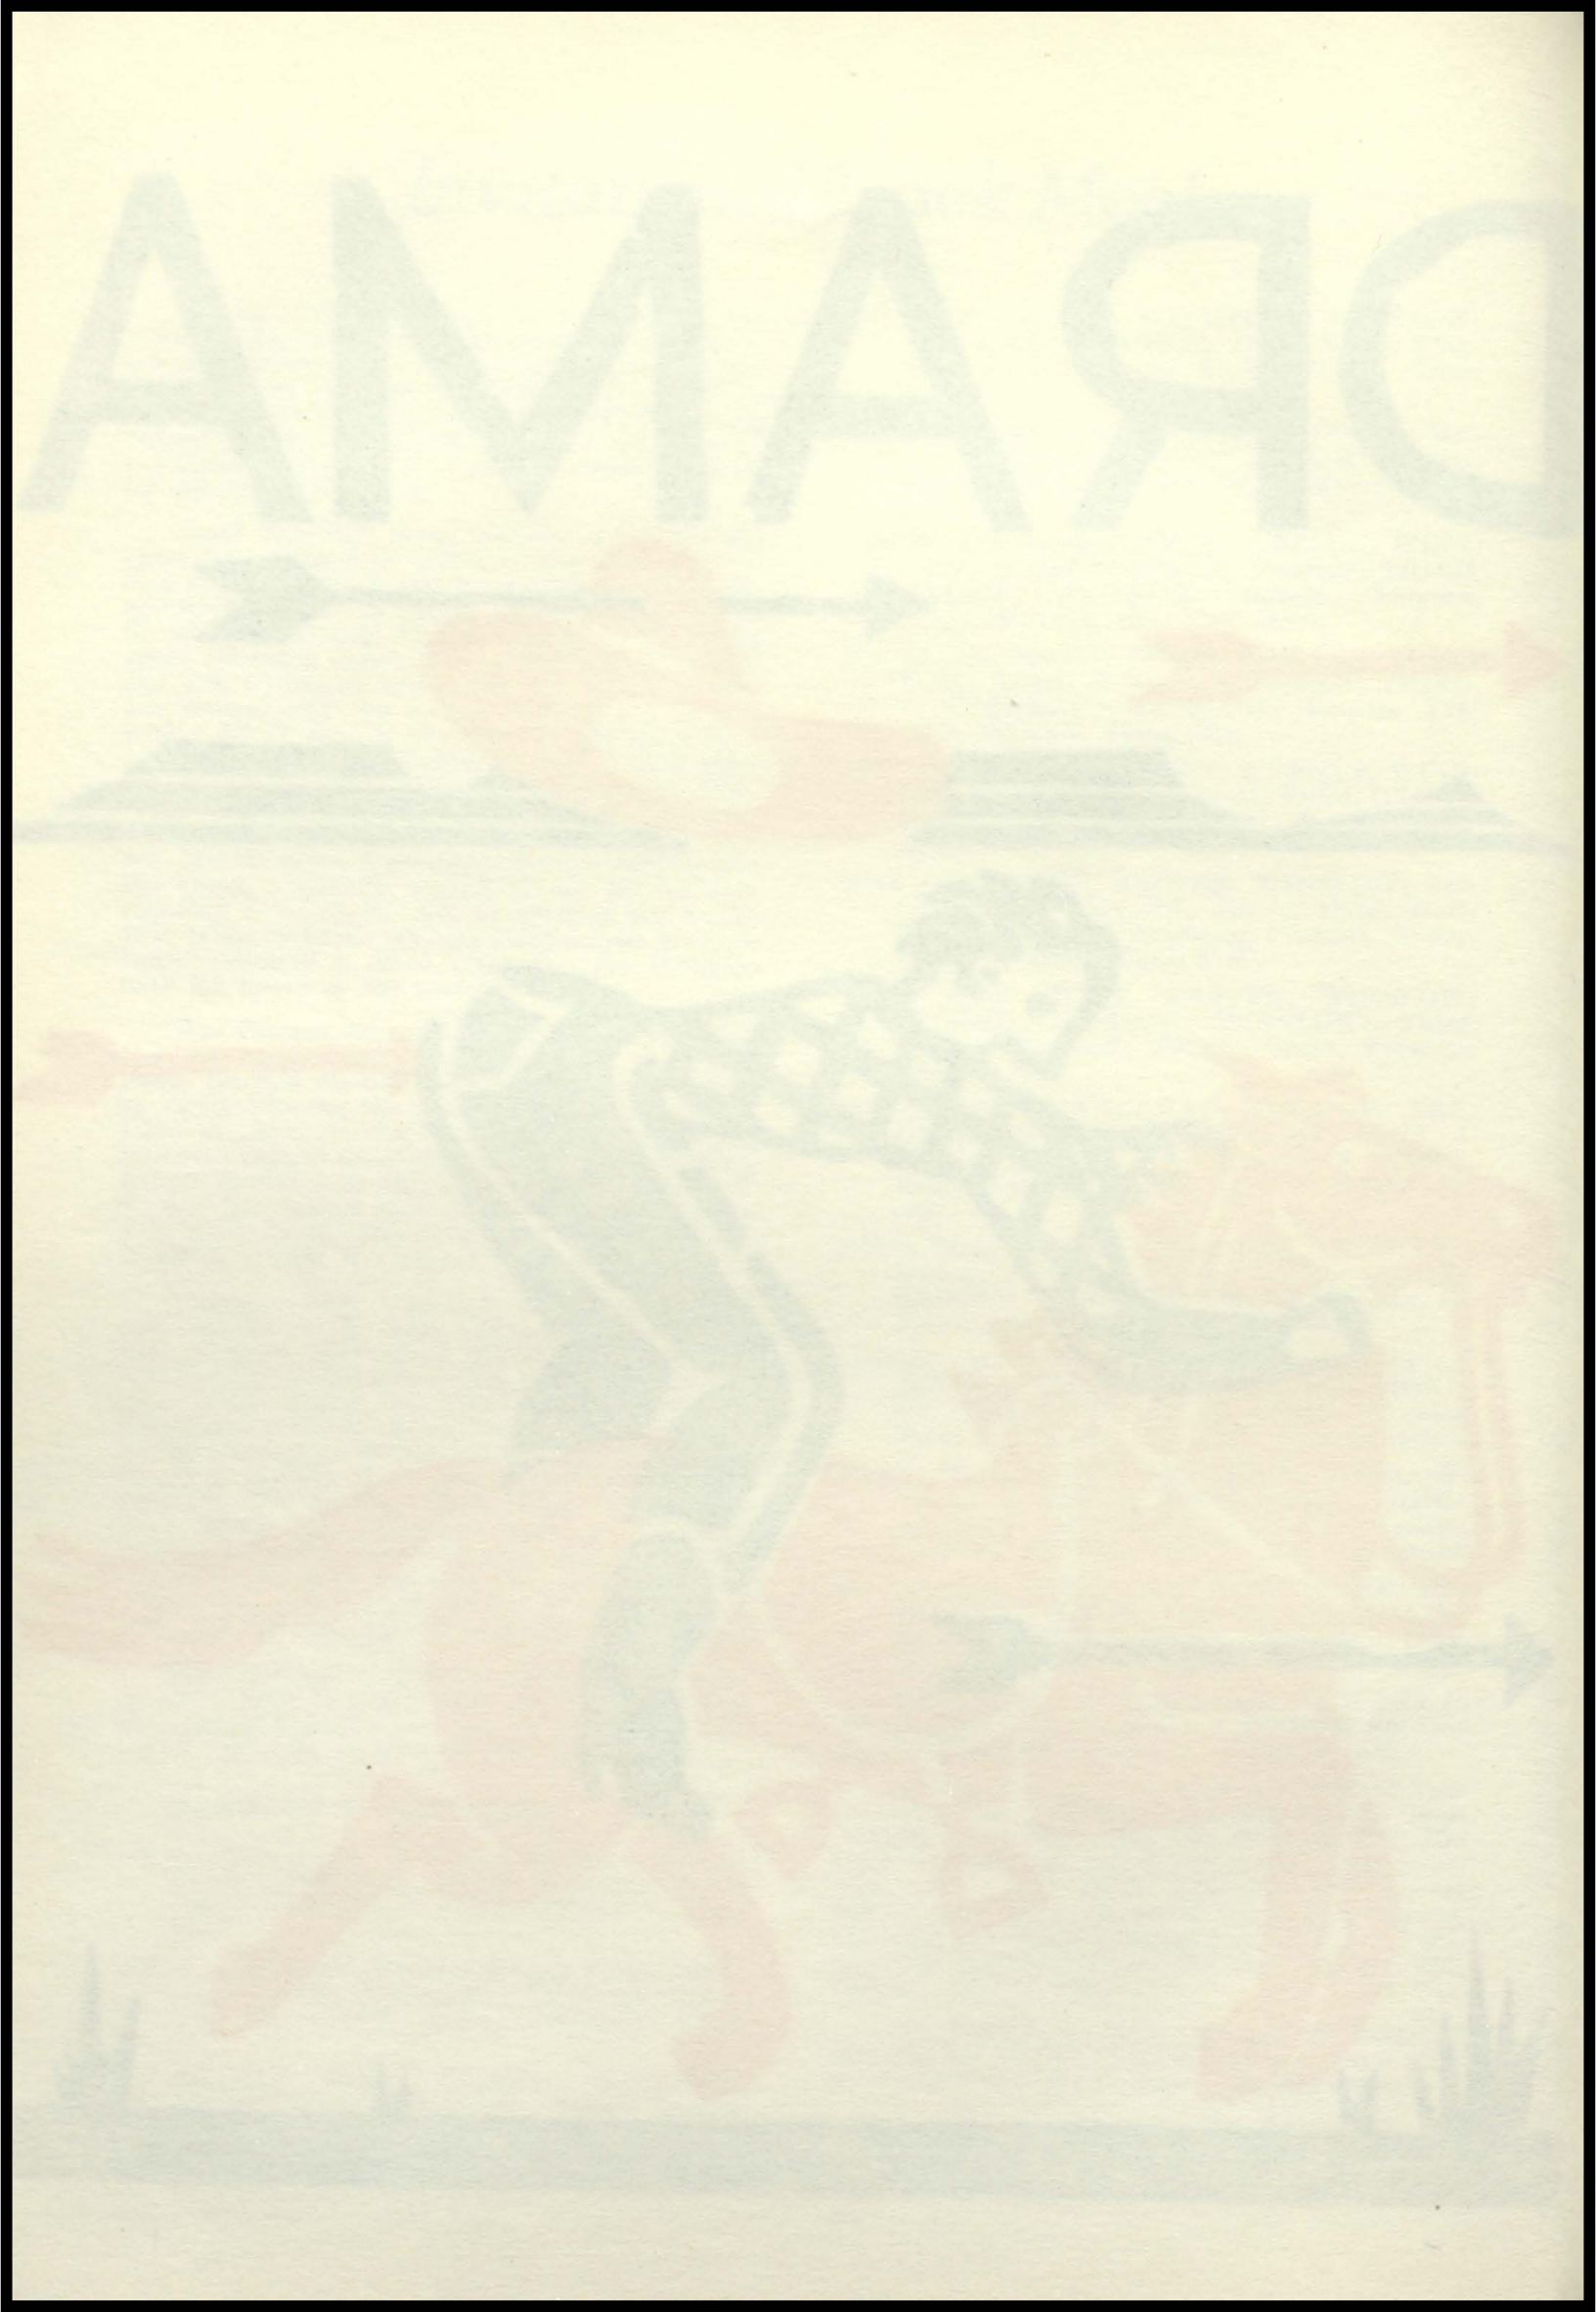

By Charley Werner.

DRAMA

Senior Play

Presented December 13, 1940

Screams, gun shots, crazy people, and villains all combined to make the Senior play of this year unique and one of the most amusing plays ever presented in the school. The hero, heroine, and hero's Chinese valet Wing, all pursued by the lunatics, Priscilla, John Alden, Lady Macbeth, from one side, and the mean Dr. Bunn, and his helpers, Burke, Mrs. Kluck from the otherside. Then Don's pursuing fiancée, Gertrude Finch, her mother, Mrs. Finch, and their colored maid, Depression, arrive on the scene and further complications set in. The crook, Siletto, decides to use the house as his hideout. This cast, together with a novel set, and excellent sound effects, made the play a very exceptional one.

Scott Freeman .....	Frank Fuller
Jane Benham .....	Mrs. Fuller
James Better .....	Captain Sharp
Cynthia Day .....	Dorothy
John Macnider .....	John Brown
Virginia Corcoran .....	Mrs. Brown

The play starts off with a bang when Jack Temple arrives home at 10:00 a. m. after a night out. Further complications set in because he has a married lady with him. Jack doesn't know her name, but in reality she is the wife of his old friend, Frank Fuller, who is in Paris. Jack's wife doesn't believe him when he tells her he spent the night with Mr. John Brown, Elm Avenue, Pickleton. All this he made up on the spur of the moment and by a strange coincidence it happens to be a real name and address. In the meantime, Frank Fuller arrives on the scene. Fuller is not expected home until the next day, so he wants Jack to have a good time with him. Finding Jack in trouble, Fuller impersonates the John Brown to whom Mrs. Temple has sent a telegram. The real Mrs. John Brown comes later on and further complications set in, and one lie follows another. To cap it all, Mrs. Fuller arrives and the situation provides hilarious comedy till the end—where the truth is finally told. Dorothy and Captain Sharp provide the romance, and Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Wigson provide the humor.

On February 12, 1941, the Public Speaking Class presented its annual One Act plays. The plays were picked, cast selected, and directed by the members of the class.

*Carnival
King and Queen*

Bulldog Rumpus

Every year a carnival is staged by the Junior-Senior High School. This gala affair is known as the Bulldog Rumpus. The day is started off with a parade. That night at 7:00 o'clock the carnival opens with each class contributing two sideshows and three concessions. At 9:00 o'clock a huge floor show is staged. The climax of the evening is the coronation of the King and Queen, who reign over the carnival. After the floor show dancing continues until midnight.

The money from the affair is used to buy something the entire student body will enjoy.

Will

We, the Senior Class of 1941 of Winslow High School, being sane of mind and sound of body, do hereby set forth this document as a last will and testament. To our helpful assistants, childhood companions, and less fortunate schoolmates, we generously bequeath the following:

Item 1. To our principal, Mr. Zimmerman, we extend our heartfelt gratitude for his paternal protection and kind leadership in our last years in high school.

Item 2. To our superintendent, Mr. Booth, we leave a million thanks for his unlimited patience and unbounded good humor.

Item 3. To the members of the faculty we decree our best wishes and sincere thanks for their patience and never-failing faith in us.

Item 4. To our underclassmen we leave the hope that they will appreciate school even more than we did, never stop holding it dear, and forgive us for what we say here.

Item 5. Then as individuals, we bequeath the following:

I, Fred Bailey, will my most beloved possession, my hula skirt, to Tom Johnson. Take good care of it, Tom.

I, Sally Kaufman, will my countless love affairs to Virginia Godsell.

I, Dick Kleindienst, will my "I am always right, even when I'm wrong" attitude to Charles Upham.

I, Nell-Jane Sughrue, will my pretty blue eyes to Lillian Chambers. May she have as good a time as I did.

I, Bill Poisall, will my car to Douglas Wamble, if he can get it started.

I, Virginia Howell, will my ability to flirt with teachers and people in general to Virginia Corcoran.

I, Wayne Dean, will my dashing, debonair manner to Paul Rohe.

I, Jayne Kutcher, will the "y" in my name to Jane Benham. May you have as much luck with it as I did, Jayne.

I, Larry Davis, will my appeal to the feminine population of W. H. S. to Charles Werner. Carry on, Charley!

I, Maxene Heartz, will my S. A. E. pin to Pat Sughrue. I would like an engagement ring, anyway.

I, Genevieve Jenkins, will my highly inflammable temper to Anna Jensen.

I, Richard Thomas, will my curly locks and ability to always take the opposite side of an argument to Jack Cliver.

I, Helen Bostick, will my "platinum" blond hair to Bernice Moden. May it brighten your life as well as it did mine.

I, Mary Antonio, will my soft voice and sweet smile to Madelon Tackett.

I, Dorothy Willey, will my piano playing ability to Emily Phelan. May your playing be as well received as mine was.

I, Robert Sanchez, will my aloofness to Paul Adams.

I, June Alsman, will my ability to talk forever and say absolutely nothing to Betty Ewan.

I, John Carrillo, will my malapropisms and my American Government book (I hope I won't need it again) to Joe Rudert.

I, Rosemary Purdy, will my "pug" nose to my sister, Suzanne. Sorry, girls, but I want to keep it in the family.

I, Albert Ong, will my adaptability to Kenneth Parker.

I, Jimmy Upchurch, will my athletic prowess to Joe Cupell. May you captain the football team as well as I did.

I, Bobby Lewis, will my lone earring to N. B. Van.

I, Kimiko Hirokawa, will my carefree manner to Pat Irwin.

I, Gilbert Villarino, will my patent leather hair to Eugene Cotter.

I, Pat Murray, will my ability to go with Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman boys to Marion Mahan. I hope you have as much fun as I did, Marion.

I, Juanita Witt, will my last name to Olive Singer. A singer with wit should be successful.

I, Melba Wilson, will my blush to Grace Martini. Be sure to use it at the right time, Grace.

I, Eileen Wiley, will my sesquipedalianisms and brilliant wisecracks to Jane Benham. Don't use them too often, Jane.

I, Robert Willian, will my ability to be stubborn to Ross Rhoton. Be careful, Ross. There are times when it is best to give up.

I, Arthur Wickham, will my corney jokes to John Macnider.

I, Doris Dewey, will Bill Wyrick to Pat Lindblom for one year. Take good care of him, Pat, but remember the lease is up in a year.

I, Liberato Apodoca, will my quiet manner to Thomas Keaton.

I, Alice Jean Lewis, will my chewing gum to Lucy Santesteban. May you chew it only half as vigorously as I did.

I, Manuel Aranda, will my gabiness to Leroy Upham.

I, Catherine Kaufman, will my long golden tresses to Robert Kislingbury.

I, Tom Burgett, will my ability to tease the girls to James Better. See that you become the expert that I am.

I, Tony Santesteban, will my name "Puny" to Scott Freeman.

I, Bethel Schaefer, will my curls and schoolgirl complexion to Betty Van Cleave.

I, Glenna Shumway, will my giggle to Jane Hirokawa. Use it often, Jane. There is nothing W. H. S. needs as much as it does my giggle.

I, Alice Sorensen, will my ability to be faithful to Jeanne Mosley. Be faithful, Jeanne, but not to all boys.

I, Bill Carr, will my fascinatin' grin to Harold Miller.

I, Helen Hagues, will my ability to be on time at all times to John Fowler.

I, Eleanor Smith, will my shy manner to Cynthia Day.

I, Joaquin Monsegur, will my Robert Taylor profile to Troy Hendersen.

I, Jimmy Rodriguez, will half my waltzing ability to Joe Rudert. I still need Eleanor, the better half of all my waltzes.

I, Mary Burgett, will my mile-a-minute stride to Charlotte Edge. May it aid you in getting to an occasional class on time.

I, Josephine Mayes, will my ability to "kiss and make up" to Joyce Lawhead.

I, Roland Pierson, will my tales of Hawaii and my big beautiful eyes to Billy Duffey.

I, George Ahrens, will my intelligent (?) remarks to Glenn Hughey.

Lastly—We hereby nominate and appoint Mr. Stratton and Mrs. Godsell, our sponsors at Winslow High School, Winslow, State of Arizona, to be executors, without bond, of this, our last will and testament; and we hereby revoke all former wills and testamentary instruments.

In witness whereof we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our signature and seals on this day of May 26, in the year of our Lord 1941.

SENIOR CLASS of 1941.

Charles W.: Do you think you could learn to love me?

Betty Van Cleave: Well, I learned to eat spinach.

Josephine: I'll try anything once. Ed: How about a kiss?

Josephine: Oh, I've tried that before.

Mrs. P.: I hope you never make fun of my cooking.

Mr. P.: Certainly not! Your cooking isn't a bit funny.

Cynthia Day: Mmmmm! That pop corn has a heavenly smell.

Kenneth Parker: Hasn't it? I'll drive a little closer.

Dick K.: Let's cut American Government today.

Fred Bailey: Can't, I need the sleep.
